Cancer in the Family: Helping your children Understand a Cancer Diagnosis in the Family

Talking to children about cancer can be very difficult. Please join us for the launch of Hope & Cope's new program, En Famille. Meet with other parents who have walked in your shoes. A panel of parents and professionals will share their experiences with you and provide helpful strategies on how to help your children deal with cancer in the family.

Panel Includes:

Yvonne Clarke MSW. MFT. CT.

Experienced therapist, specializing in families, cancer and grief

Two families with school aged children who have experienced a cancer diagnosis

When:

Thursday November 12th 7:30 P.M. – 9:00 P.M.
